ARCHIVE PDF

WHY THIS ARCHIVE EXISTS

This archive was created to preserve a complete, unaltered record — accessible to the public permanently, regardless of institutional or governmental pressure. It functions as a distributed evidence preservation system, an authored works repository, and a public testimony platform.

Nothing in this archive has been removed or altered. All materials are presented exactly as authored. The record is maintained because suppression has been documented and because the public has a right to access this material.

Who the Author Is

Dr. Richard William McLean (pen name: Barran Dodger) is an Australian author, researcher, and former public figure. He holds a doctoral qualification and has authored an extensive body of work spanning prophetic writing, forensic analysis, legal testimony, and structured documentation of institutional conduct.

His work has been downloaded more than 813,181+ times across six continents. The archive contains more than 899+ documents, books, forensic reports, and testimony records. A significant portion of his material has been independently reviewed and corroborated through AI analysis tools, blockchain timestamping, and public engagement.

Dr. McLean has been the subject of formal government assessments, media coverage, and institutional responses across multiple agencies. This archive preserves the full record — including materials that are critical of institutional actors — without omission or modification.

He operates under the registered business entity: Barran Dodger Legal & Ethical Trust Fund — ABN 78 833 496 164.

Scope of the Archive

Testimony

A structured, first-person account of documented events spanning institutional conduct, legal proceedings, and personal survival. All events are supported by documentary evidence.

Whistleblower Record

Formal documentation of systemic misconduct, including recorded evidence, official correspondence, forensic analyses, and corroborating records from government bodies.

Publications

A library of authored books freely available for download — including forensic reports, prophetic writings, and structured analyses of documented events.

Evidence Archive

899+ source documents including NDIS records, government correspondence, surveillance evidence, legal filings, and blockchain-timestamped proof of original authorship.

Purpose of Preservation

This archive is preserved because the author has documented evidence that institutional actors have attempted to suppress, discredit, and erase his record. The public distribution of this material — across multiple independent servers, blockchain timestamps, and international mirrors — ensures that no single point of failure can eliminate the record.

The archive does not make requests for belief. It makes the material available so that any reader, researcher, or investigator can form their own assessment based on the evidence as presented.
